Mill Road, Sharnbrook

Sharnbrook

Sharnbrook is a Village located in North Bedfordshire just off the A6 and lies to the North of the River Great Ouse where it meets the Brook which gives the Village its name. St Peters Church is the oldest surviving building in the Village. The Village is also mentioned in the Domesday book.

Today Sharnbrook is home to about 2000 people and is a desirable place to live; the Village offers excellent road links to Bedford, Northampton and Milton Keynes. From Bedford Train station there is a regular service into London St Pancras, you can be in London in just 35 minutes.

In the Village you can find an array of shops - there is a Butchers, Bakers, two Pubs, Theatre, Restaurants, Supermarket, Newsagents and a Grocers.

The Village also has a Lower School and is home to the highly respected Secondary School - Sharnbrook Upper and the Paula Radcliffe Leisure Centre.

The Mill

The Mill is a small development of four new five bedroomed detached homes to be built in the sought after village of Sharnbrook.

We are excited to be releasing our 2nd phase here of only four stunning new homes set on a small development, the properties will be finished both internally and externally to a high specification and have been designed to offer the very best in modern living.
